

5th April 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

We are now only 4 school weeks away from the start of your son/daughter's GCSE/A Level examinations. By this stage they should have created their revision timetable and be completing at least 1-2 hours per night in preparation for the exams which begin on Friday 12th May.

We are committed to helping our pupils achieve their maximum potential and success in August; therefore we have made arrangements to be able to offer some Easter holiday revision sessions. These will take place on Thursday 6th April, Tuesday 11th and Wednesday 12th April. We hope that your son/daughter is able to attend the sessions that are relevant to them.
